GK-87 Proofing Contractions

Blackline Master available
www.tpri.org

Students correct the use of contractions in a letter.

MATERIALS: Letter, chalkboard/chalk, pencils/markers

- 1 Write a letter that includes misspelled contractions on the board and provide copies for each student.
- 2 Students read the letter, circling and correcting any spelling errors they find.
- 3 Review answers as a group, making corrections to the letter on the board.

EXAMPLE:

Nine words are misspelled in the letter: won't, we're, we're, you're, isn't, you'll, it's, I'll, your.

Dear Keisha,

You wonn't believe where wer'e going this weekend. My mom says w'ere going to the beach and your invited! Isn't that exciting news? I hope you'l be able to come with us. Its going to be so fun!

Will you please come? I hope so. Il'l keep my fingers crossed that you're mom says you can come.

Love,
Sharon

PREPARATION OF MATERIALS: Print one copy of the letter for each student. Follow the activity directions.
